SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL

Stephanie F. Saloob
"1972"

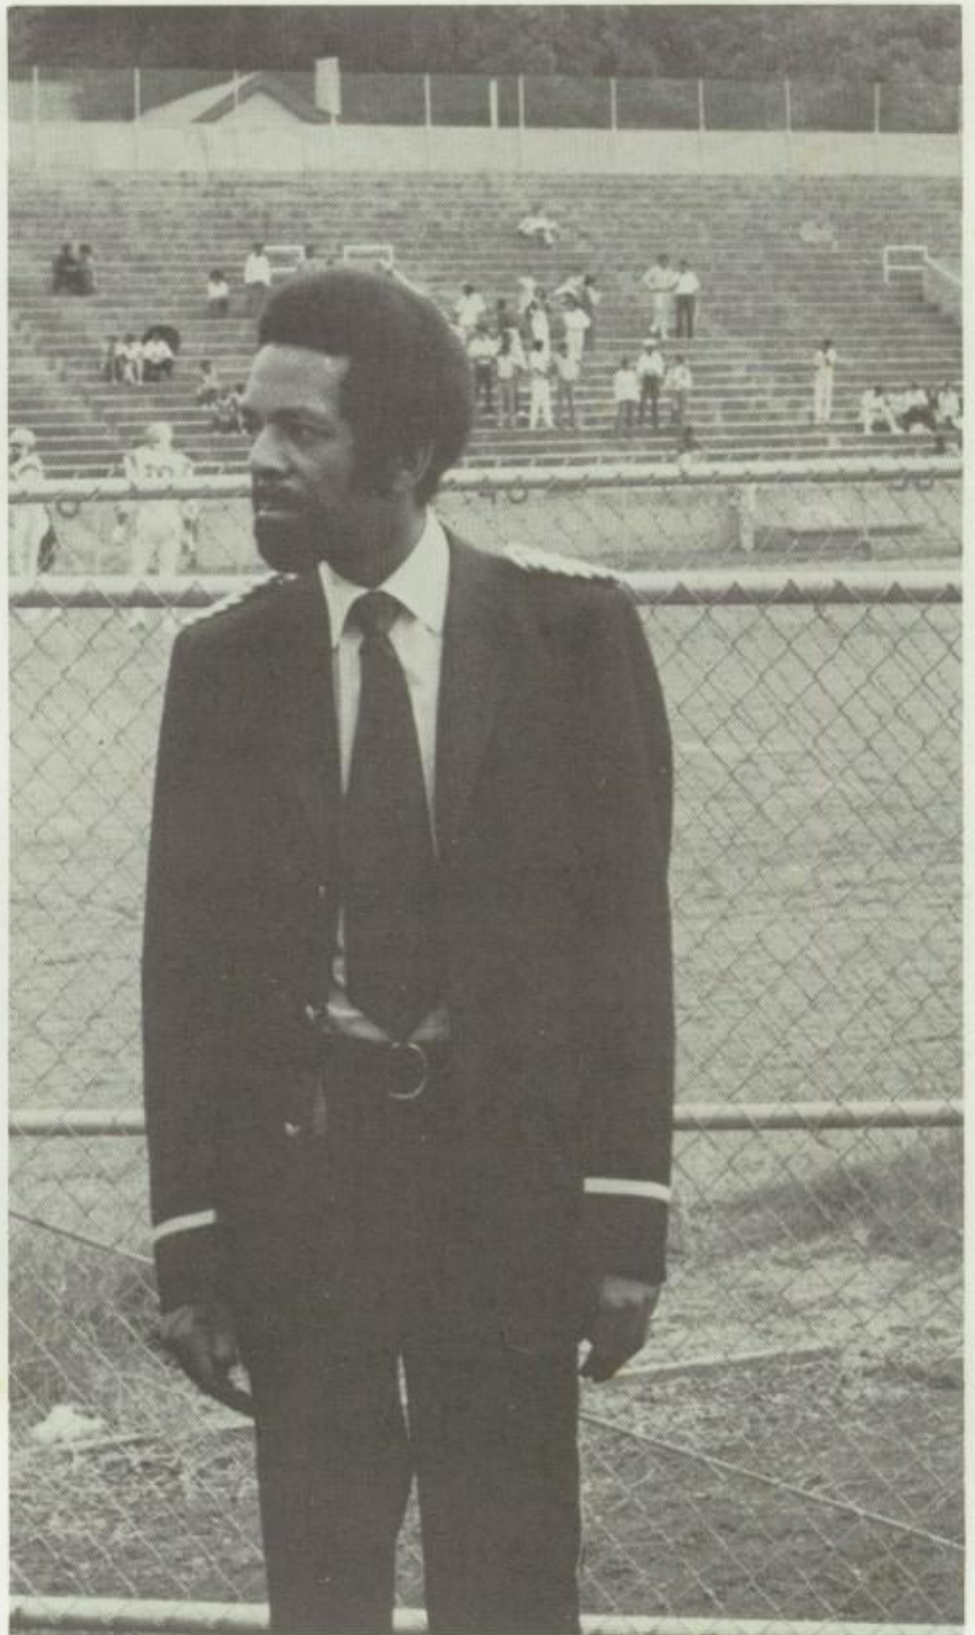

Through these doors pass many people, all the people of Southwest. Each person is different from every other; each having his own ideas and opinions about what goes on in our school. We all walk the same halls, share the same lockers, have the same teachers, play together on the same teams, use the same books, and do all the things together that make up school life. Yet we all interpret these same sights and situations in our own individual manner. We all see Southwest every day in our own way, yet it is the same Southwest we all love so dearly. In the following pages you will see Southwest. We will all behold the same images, yet we will interpret these views in our own perspective. THIS IS OUR SOUTHWEST THROUGH THE EYES OF THE BEHOLDER.

Dedication

This year there has been a man in our midst who has devoted much of his time to the task of making Southwest the best school in Atlanta. Through his works, he has touched many people. He is dedicated, extremely talented, and well liked by all that know him. He deals with all types of people throughout the school, yet he manages to get along with them all. His contributions to the school through the band are deeply appreciated by all. The year-book staff takes great pleasure in dedicating the 1972 Resumé to . . .

PAUL F. MITCHELL

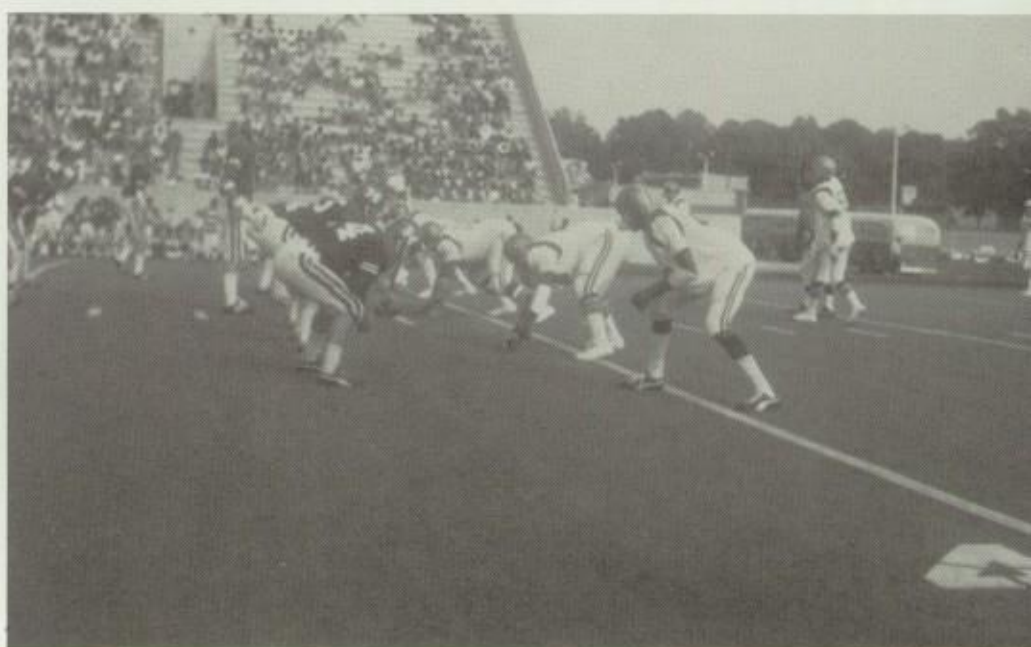

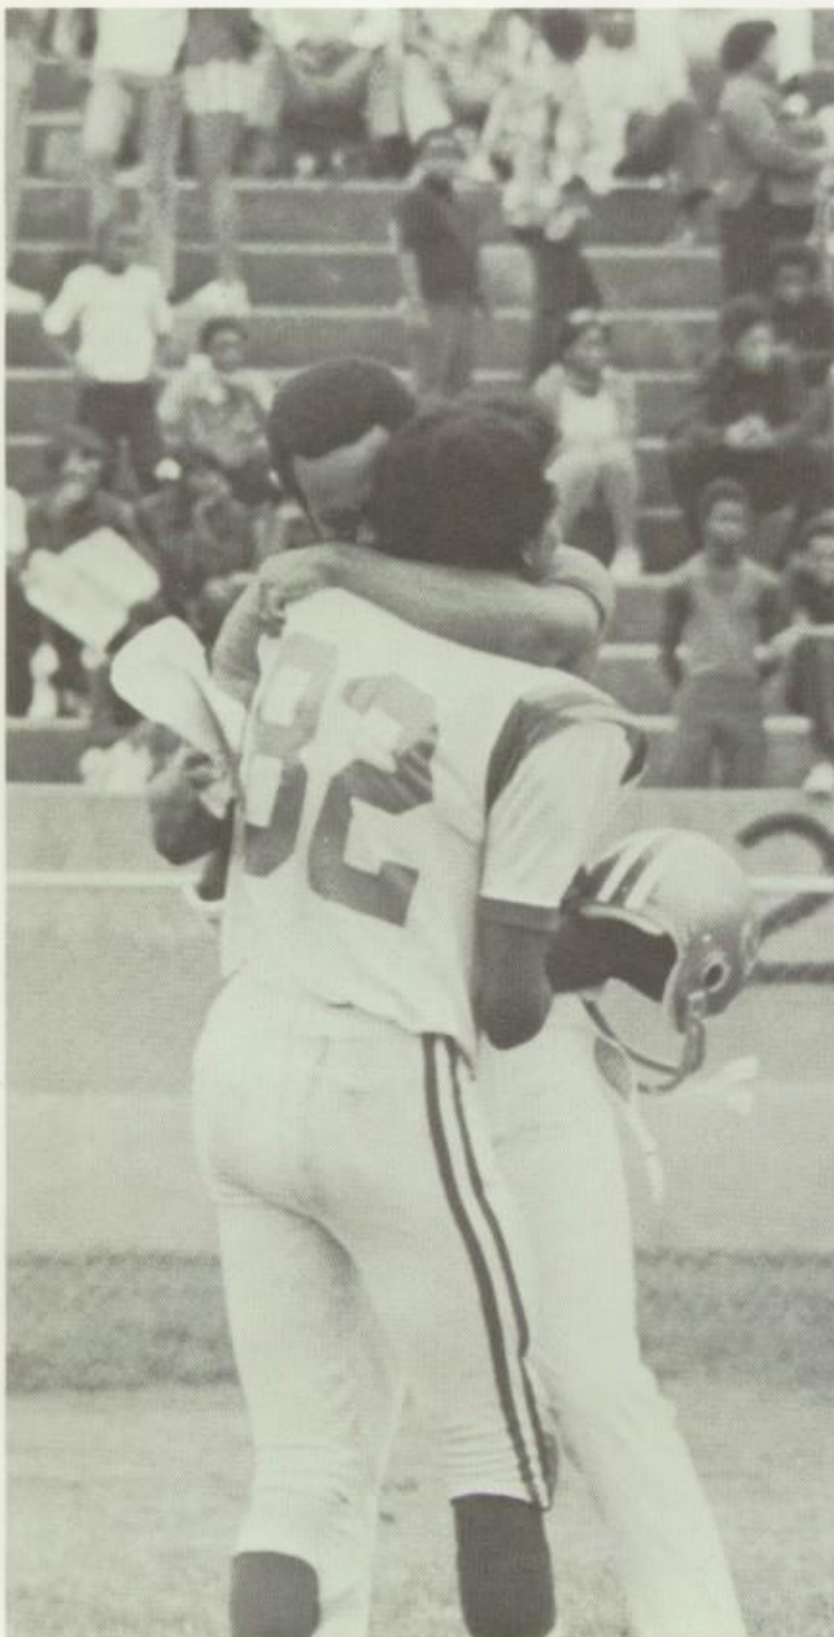

Throughout the year we at Southwest have shared all sorts of experiences that will be remembered by each of us in our own unique way. We shared times of great joy and emotion; times of hard work and fun; times of drama and moments of extreme sincerity. But, in the end, all these moments will be remembered by all of us in our own unique way.

The Marching Wolves

The Superbad drummers stole the show whenever they made the scene.

Our lovely majorettes do their thing.

The Marching Wolves marched into the '71 football season sporting new uniforms. They played such hits as "Shaft," "K-Gee" "Maybe Tomorrow," and "Love the One You're With." The band was a real treat whether performing at football games, pep rallies or parades. The student body is proud of the band's achievements.

An Oasis of Southwest Beauty

On Thursday night, November 11, 1971, we held our coronation in the school auditorium. That night the lovely Miss Theresa Hightower was crowned Miss Southwest, '71.

The Varsity Cheerleaders liven up the Homecoming Pep Rally

Homecoming

Homecoming '71 was a time of mixed emotions. The entire school was involved in many gayla activities such as; Dress Up Day, Hobo Day, the corn boil, George High's funeral, the Coronation, the Game and the Homecoming Ball. The entire week was full of emotional experiences that we will never forget.

On the second day of Black History Week we had a panel discussion. The panel guests were Captain J. D. Hudson, Atlanta Police Department; Rev. A. J. Young, Community Relations Commission; Dr. Brisbane, Professor at Morehouse College; Rev. Langford, Assistant Pastor, Free for All Church; and Willie Ricks.

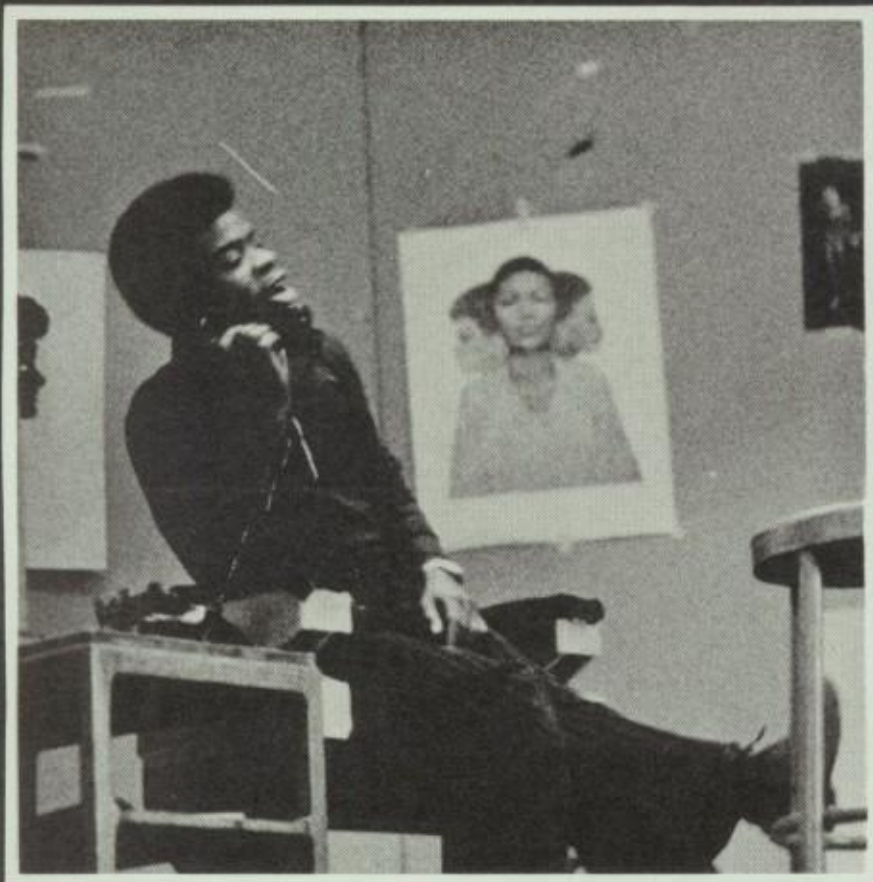

Our speakers for the week was Dr. Vincient Harding, director of the Institute of the Black World. His topic was the omission of black people in history textbooks. He gave us a lot of information concerning our history.

Christopher Dwight, Theresa Hightower, Oliver Peterson, and Eddie Irons sang "Old Man River." Eddie has the under-class girls screaming with his low bass tones.

Above: Bill—"You found who? Model? Yeah, Yeah, thanks, . . . but I like to find my own models. No! Don't bring nobody up here in the middle of a riot . . ." Right: Tommy—"Niggers, niggers, niggers. I'm sick-a nigger, ain't you? A nigger will mess up every-time . . . Lemme tell you what niggers done . . ." Bill—"Try Afro-Americans." Tommy—Well, the Afro-Americans burnt down my house."

A play was presented to the student body on the last day of Black History Week. The play, "Wine in the Wilderness," was written by Alice Childress. The play is about Bill, a black painter, who needs a model to pose as a "messed-up chick." His friends, Sonnyman and Cynthia, bring him a girl, Tommy, to pose for him. He falls in love with her before the play is over. She teaches him the true meaning of black togetherness and love of one's people.

Tommy—"I ain't askin' you nothing. You hinky, I'm hinky. I'm independent as a hog on ice, and a hog on ice is dead, cold, well-preserved . . . and don't need a mother-grabbing thing. I know models get paid. I ain't no square, but this is a special night and so this one'll be on the house. Show's you my heart's in the right place."

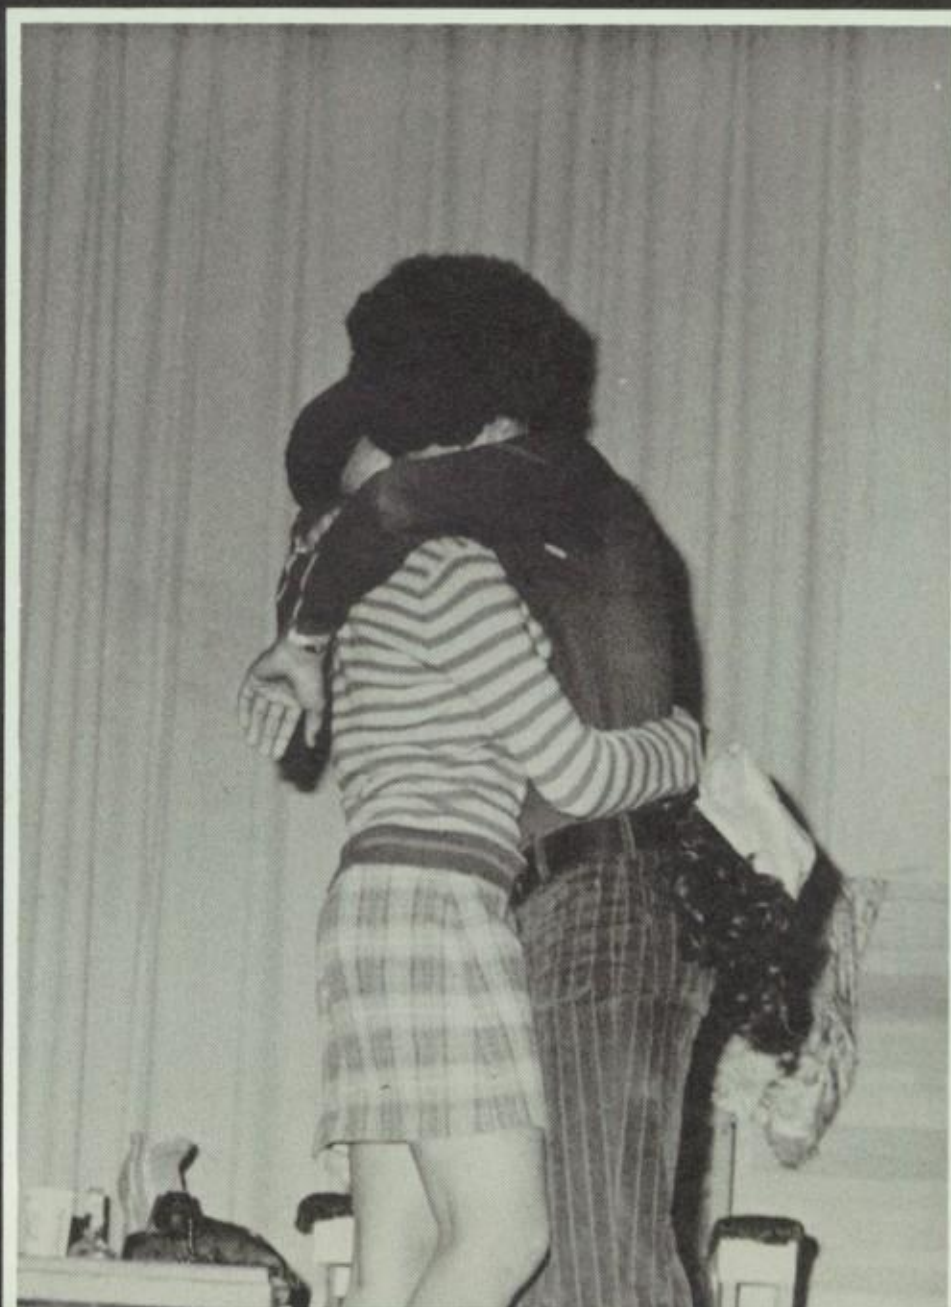

Tommy—"And you stop callin' me "the" sister, you fellin' so brotherly why don't you say "my" sister? Ain't no we-ness in your talk. "The" Afro-American, "The" black man, ther's no we-ness in you. Who you think you are?" Sonnyman—"I was talkin' in general er . . . my sister, 'bout the masses." Tommy—"There he go again. "The" masses tryin' to make out like we pitiful and you got it made. You the masses yourself and don't even know it . . . NIGGER!"

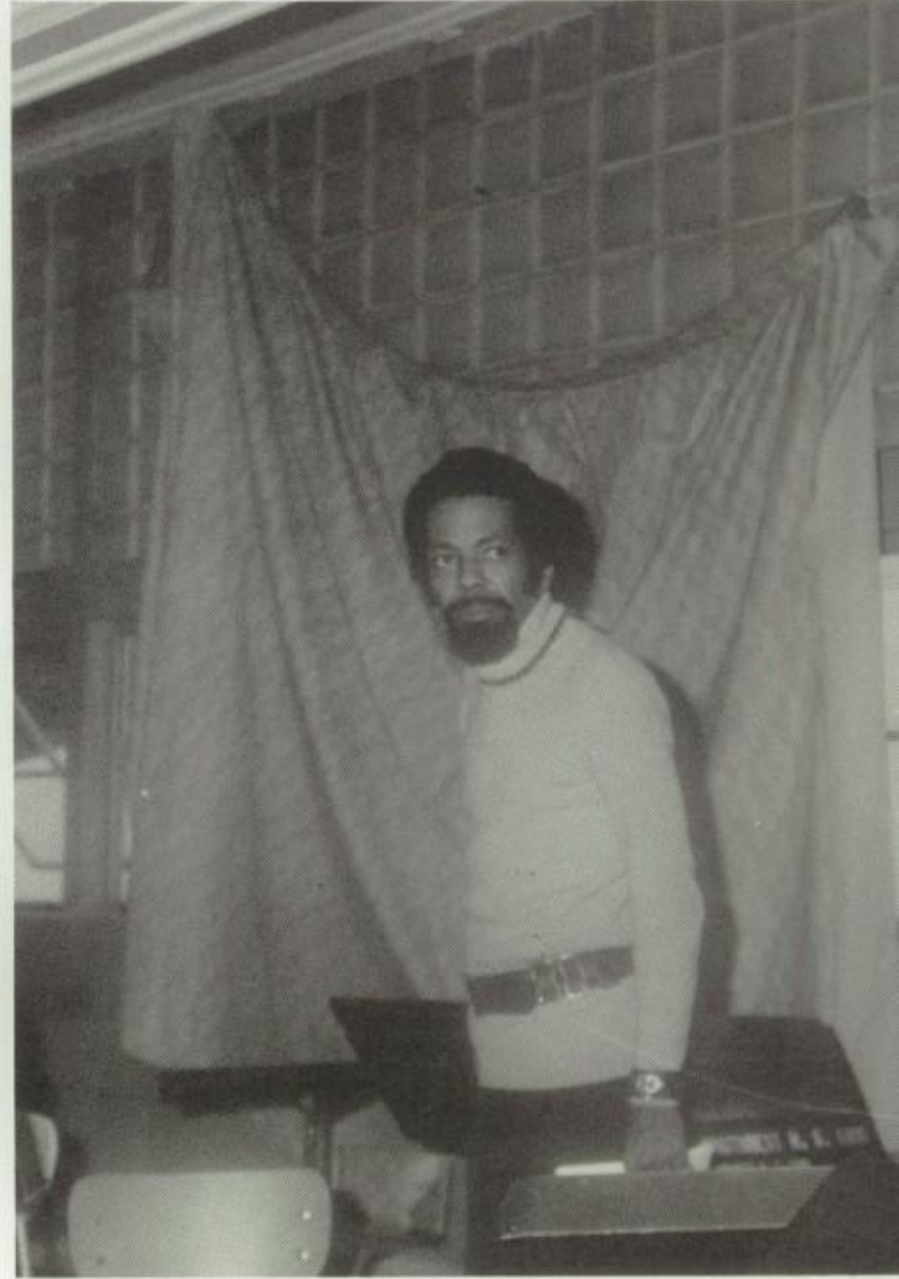

Sonnyman—"There you go. There you go." Cynthia—"Now is not the time to talk, darlin'."

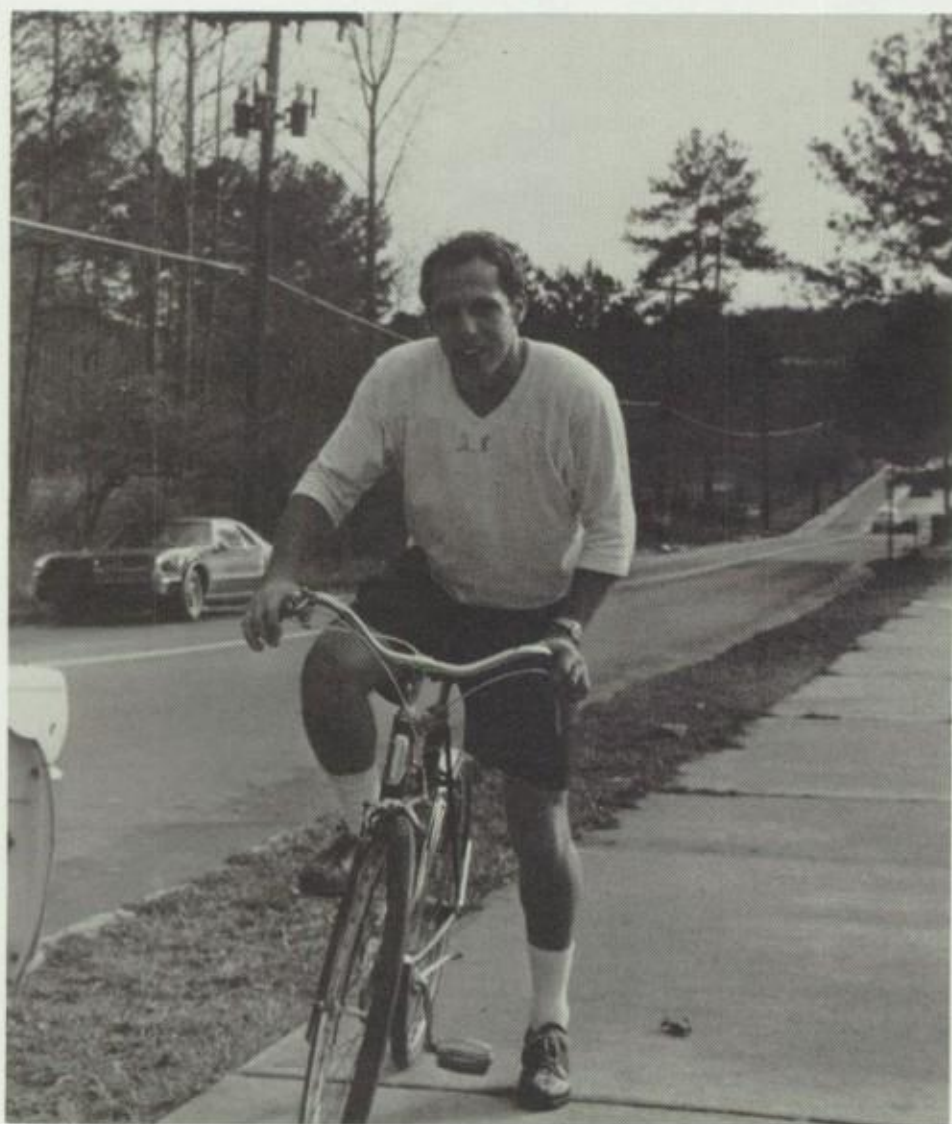

Bill—"Look at Tomorrow. She came through the biggest riot of all, somethin' called "Slavery," and she's even comin' through the now scene . . . folks laughin' at her. And look how . . . with her head high like she's poppin'."

The 1972 Resumé Staff

Dear Staff,

Before you lies the 1971-72 'Resume', This is the fruit of our labor. The 'Resume' means more to us than to anyone else in the world. As our theme suggests, there will be varied opinions and varied reactions to our book. I promise you, we will be criticized, maybe even ridiculed by some, but others will compliment, appreciate and praise our work. I truly believe that we can be proud of this book. Despite numerous unavoidable obstacles that lay in our path, due to sheer determination, we've managed to produce this great work you see before you. I think we can safely say that this book is in existence mainly because of our own efforts, with the cooperation of a select few. We've created this masterpiece despite all our problems, such as the lack of support by some of the businessmen in the community, lack of support from the majority of the student body, and even some of the faculty members. Personally I think that this book is alot more than many may deserve. Yeah, we had many other problems too, but there were those that were in our corner. I'm sure I speak for all of us when I say that we are very appreciative of them for without their help the 'Resume' would not have been the same.

So this is the 'Resume',... through the eyes of each of us... and all of the Beholders.

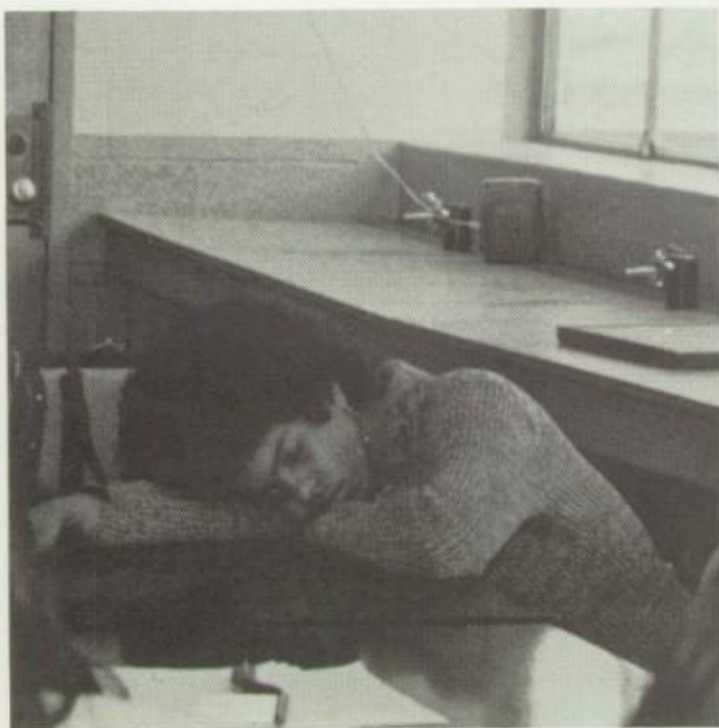

Thomas J. Locke, III
Editor-in-Chief

Thanks!

Thank you, Althea, for all you've done on the ads, especially the work you did for the first deadline. You saved us.

Thank you, Andi, for the classes section. Your diligent, untiring, never-quitting efforts produced a fine section.

Cecelya, a yearbook is a picture book. Where would we be without your pictures?!?!

Ellis, never let it be said that you didn't do your part. You were always there to take pictures at a moments' notice and yet you put together a jam-up Sports Section.

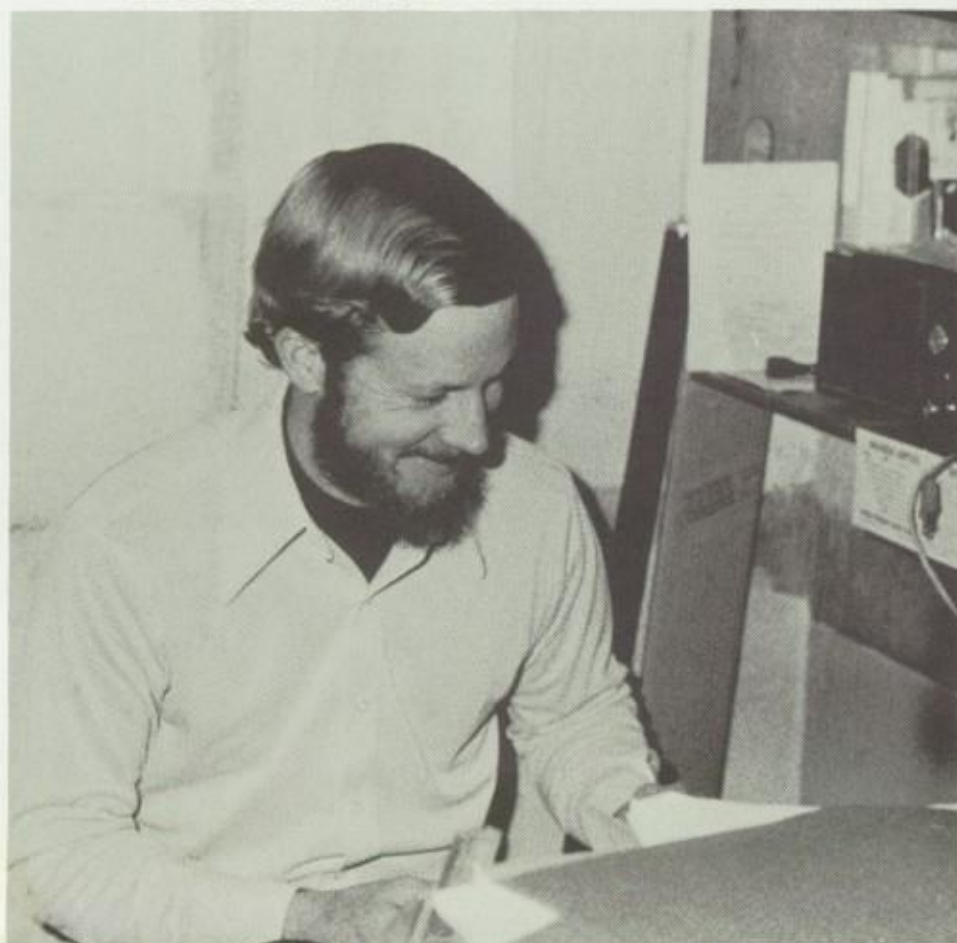

Shebbie, if anyone ever worked with many inconveniences and still did a good job, it has been you. Thanks.

Special thanks are in order to you, Greer Geiger. Your talents added a touch of creativity to our book. Many people judge a book by its cover. The superb cover of the 1972 Resumé is truly a result of your genius. Thank you for everything.

We would like to thank Mr. Don Smith for his many contributions to the 1972 Resumé. Many of the photographs in this book are donations from him.

Janet, thank you for your faculty section. Thank you for your willingness to work and your eagerness to help whenever you were needed.

Our sincere appreciation is extended to you, Mr. Mason for all your cooperation throughout the year in the production of the Resumé.

Thank you, Mrs. Norton for all the special things you did for the RESUME above and beyond the call of duty. Your advice in times of need helped to make the right decision when we otherwise wouldn't have. We often failed to show our appreciation, but we are truly grateful for what you've done.

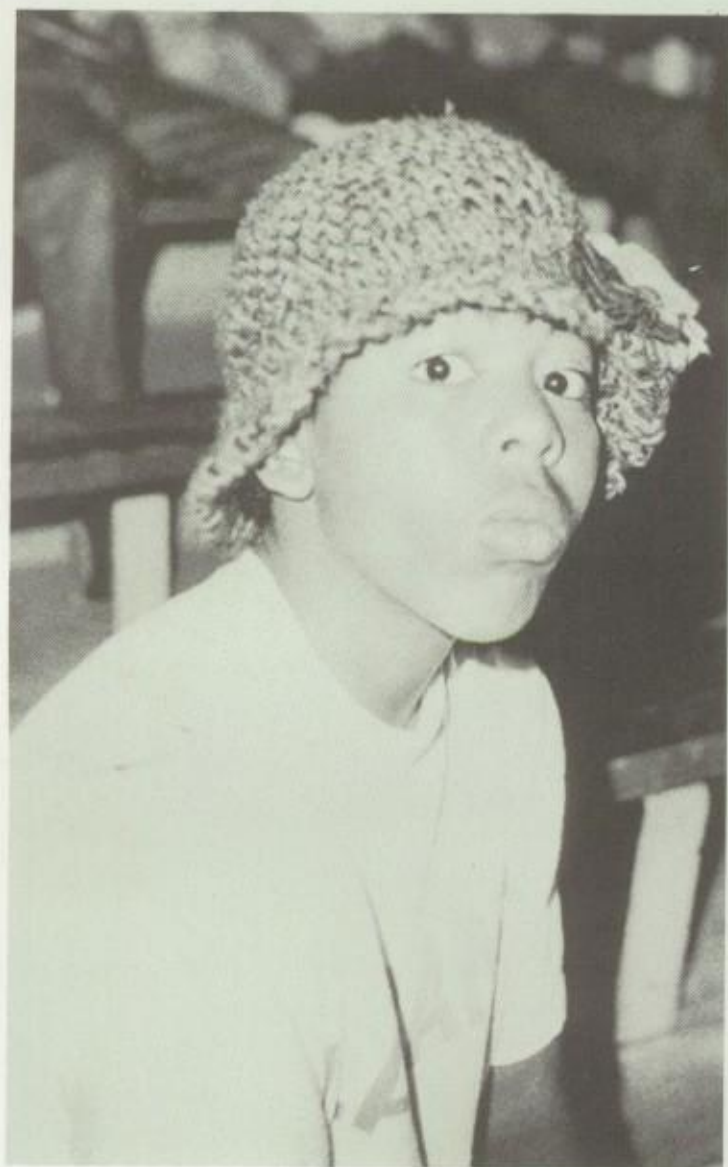

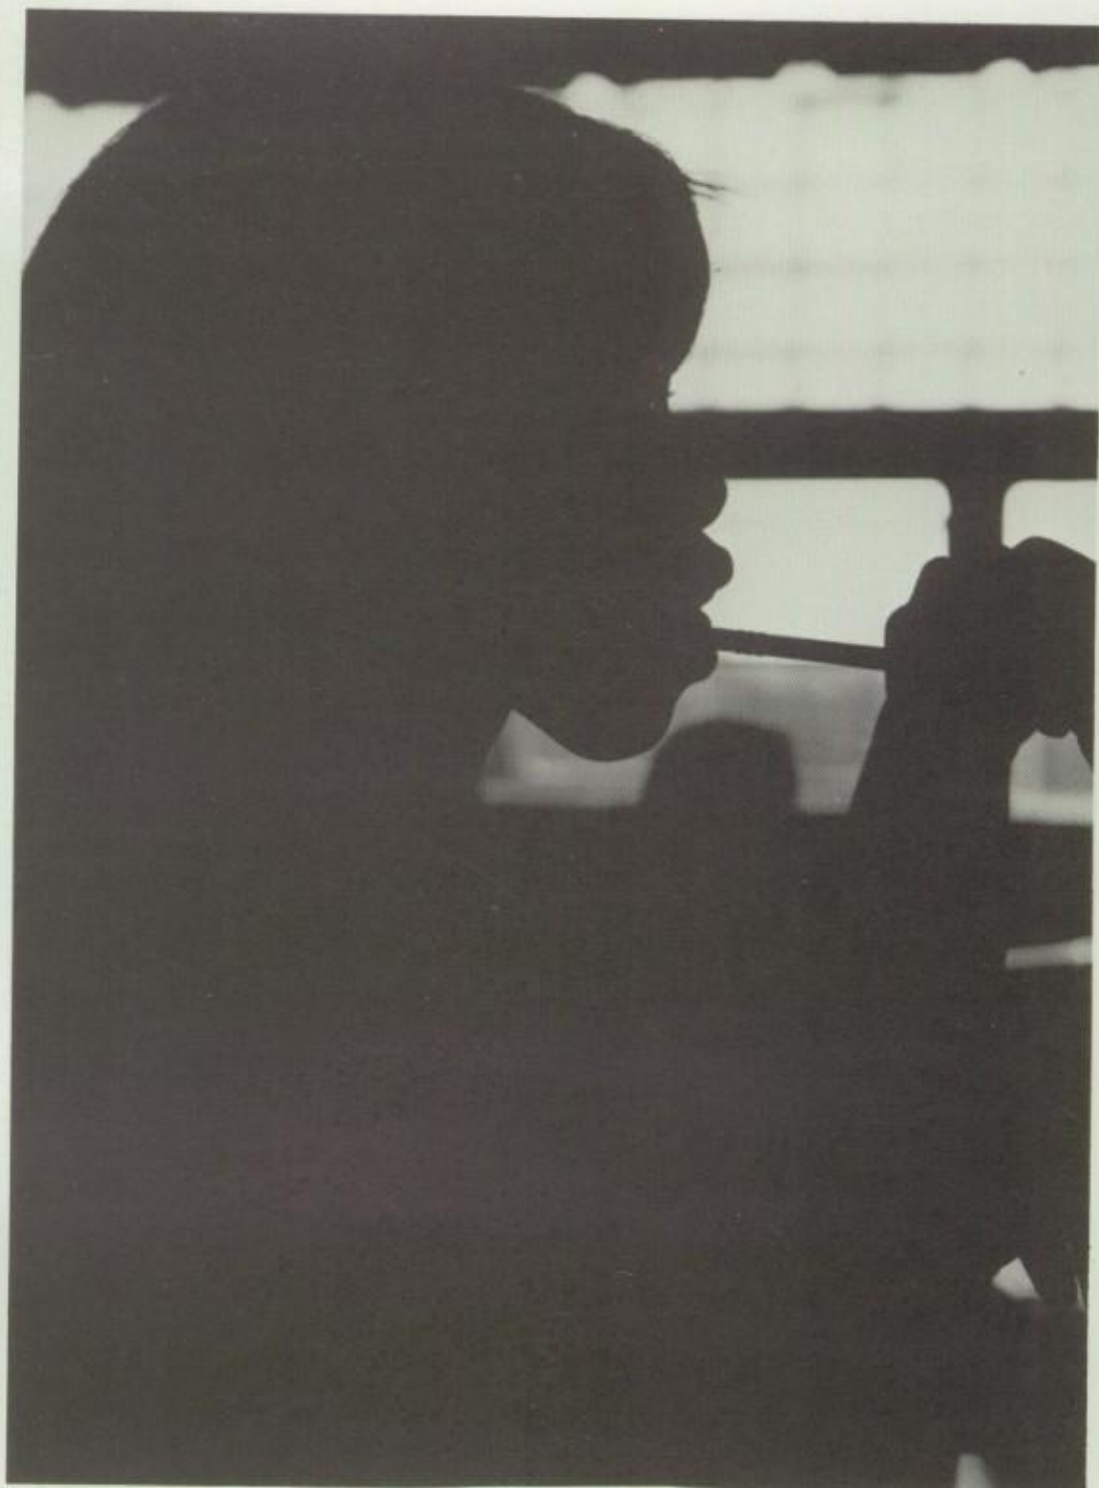

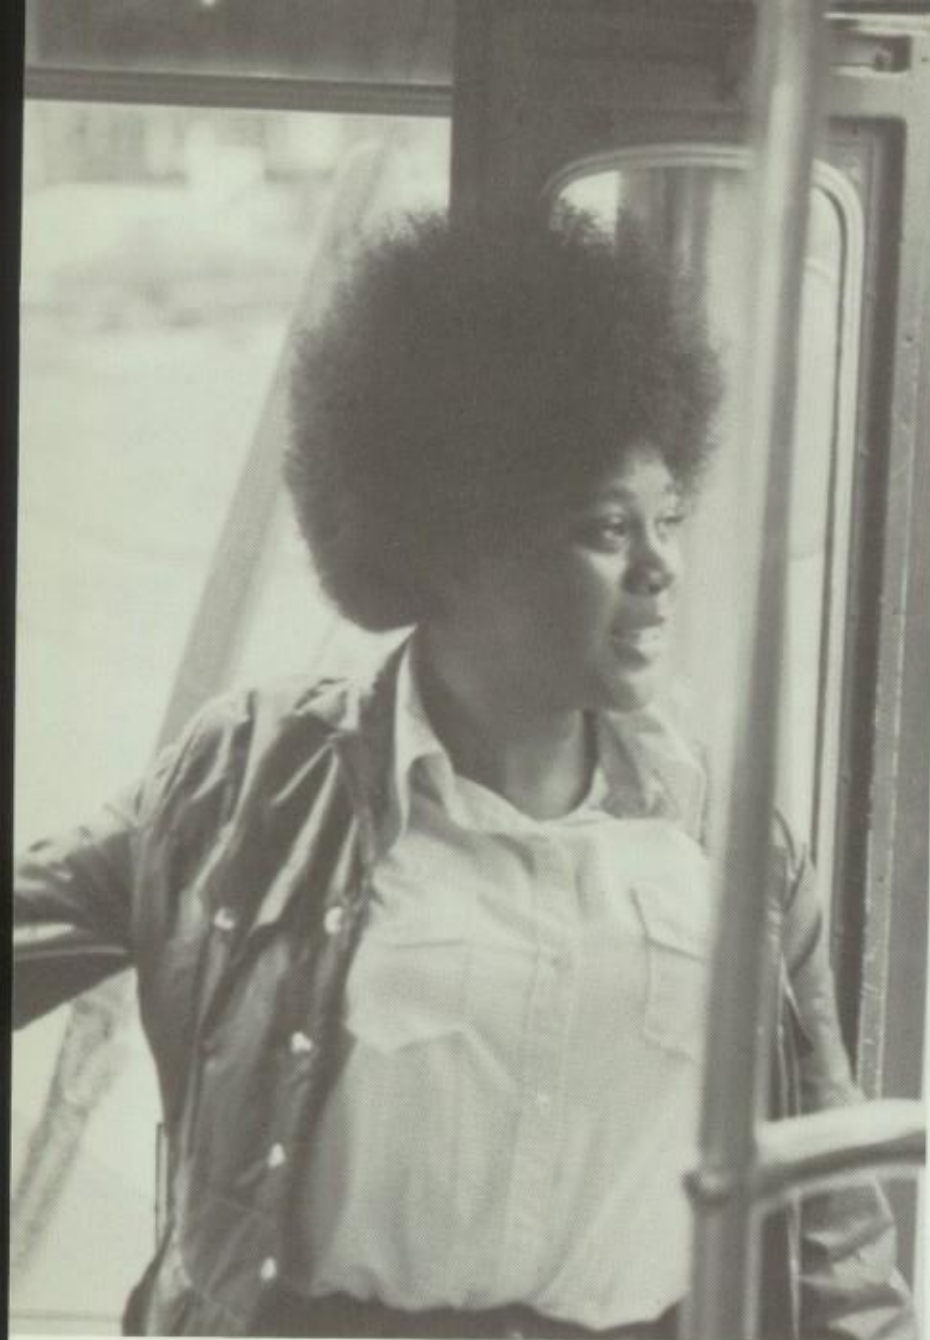

We would also like to express our appreciation to everyone that has helped to make the 1972 Resumé the book that it is.
